

2019 JACK ZINK MEMORIAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

January 09, 2019

RE: 2019 Jack Zink Memorial Student Scholarship, presented by The Carbonell Awards

Dear Educator:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of The Carbonell Awards, I am pleased to announce that we are now accepting nominations for the 2019 Jack Zink Memorial Student Scholarship Program. The selection of recipients is based on talent, experience and demonstrated commitment to the theater. Scholarships are awarded to graduating high school seniors who have achieved a minimum 2.5 GPA and are intending to enroll in college to pursue a degree in theater or journalism. The funds will be disbursed to the students selected when they have enrolled in college.

The scholarships will be presented during the 43rd Annual Carbonell Awards Ceremony on April 8, 2019, at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts. One student from each of three South Florida counties, Broward, Miami-Dade and Palm Beach, will receive scholarships ranging from $1,000-$3,000.

The scholarship is named for Jack Zink (1947-2008) who was a major voice in South Florida entertainment coverage for more than three decades. During his long career, he was employed as entertainment editor, columnist, critic and reporter at each of South Florida's major newspapers — The South Florida Sun-Sentinel, The Miami Herald, The Palm Beach Post & Evening Times and The Fort Lauderdale News. Mr. Zink was the founder and a past president of the Carbonell Awards, a past president of The American Theatre Critics' Association, and during his lifetime was a recipient of the Sun-Sentinel newspaper's highest award, The Fred Pettijohn Award, given annually to the publication's top reporters; and of South Florida's George Abbott Award for Outstanding Achievement in the Arts.
